STOCKS EXPERIENCE EXTREME REVERSALS

Open irregularly, rally at midday and then wind up in violent reaction in one day's session.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—An irregular opening soon developing into a weakness, a vigorous rally at midday and another violent reaction in the final hour summarizes the kaleidoscopic changes of today's extremely active and unsettled stock market.

Reversals of the last half hour carried steel, equipment and various materials to lowest levels and unparalled rallies elsewhere by one-half to two-thirds. The market closed in considerable disorder with a weak tone. Sales amounted to 1,673,000 shares. United States Steel suffered an extreme loss of about 9½ points at its worst, rallying only to fraction, but railroad issues offered resistance. New maximums by General Motors, Stutz, Pierce-Arrow, Mexican Petroleum and Hide & Leather pfd melted away under the heavy selling at the end; Industrial Alcohol, which also scored a new record, retained 9 of its 14 points gained.

Times funds reflected a stringent call money market, one per cent being paid on individual accounts for short periods. Moderate loans were made on prime collateral at 6 to 6½%. Exempting the 3½% Liberty bonds were heavy with the general bond list. Internationals also easing. Total sales (par value) aggregated $16,350,000.
